

Dear Family Member:

At the discretion of the Company Commander and after your Soldier successfully completes Basic Combat Training, you may choose to transport your Soldier from Fort Jackson to a designated post in the United States in order for them to complete Advanced Individual Training (AIT). Transporting your Soldier is strictly a personal choice and not an obligation. Only a parent, legal guardian, spouse, or other immediate family member (brother, sister, aunt, uncle, grandparent) over the age of 18 may transport your Soldier. Please be aware that only your Soldier will be reimbursed for this travel. If you elect not to transport your Soldier to AIT, government transportation will be provided to him/her. Below is a list of designated posts to which travel is authorized, the number of miles to the installation, and the day and time that your Soldier must be there.

Please inform your Soldier in writing via mail no later than 30 January 2015 if you elect to transport them to their Advanced Individual Training location. We need to know your preference by the 30th of January in order to allow this command sufficient time to coordinate government transportation if you elect not to transport them yourself.
